

Buy Now Pay Later

Thank you for showing interest in the Buy Now Pay Later Finance product from B & G Jenkins.

Buy Now Pay Later can be a fantastic way of paying for your new Worcester Bosch boiler. If you intend to clear the balance within 12 months of the contract being created Hitachi Finance will also wave any interest!

However it is important that you are aware, if you do not clear the account before the 12 month deadline the cost of your installation could increase more than you expect. Please pay attention to the example below:

Cost of installation	£3,000
Customer Deposit	£300
Amount of Finance	£2,700
Total cost if paid off within 12 months: (including £29 settlement fee)	£3,029

If account is not settled within the 12 months:

Number of months: 96 (12 month deferral period followed by 84 payments)
Monthly cost per month for 84 months at 17.9% APR.	£300
Total amount payable:	£5,627.28

If you feel this package is not for you please speak to B & G Jenkins about our Interest free credit and easy payment terms.
